

Fund Raising Officer Job Role and Person Specification

The role of the fund raising officer is to be innovative, and to develop new as well as traditional fundraising ideas and activities.

General actions

- To raise funds for the club by specific fund raising events (I.e. Quiz nights)
- To raise funds by combining social activities with fund raising, thus having fun whilst raising money for the club
- To think up and initiate new ideas
- To involve other people including the internal fund raiser

Qualities and skills

- Determination - to get money out of a miser
- Good communication skills - able to ask for ideas and help from other chorus members
- Good sense of humour and a persuasive manner